SUNDAY 18TH SEPTEMBER 2022

GALWAY HALF DAY TOUR

This bustling and lively city with its wonderful avant-garde culture has a fascinating history which you can enjoy during your walking tour of the city's historic quarters. While the city has many relics of its medieval past it has changed considerably over the last number of years and features a fascinating juxtaposition of new and ancient architecture. Your walking tour will take you to the remains of the 16th century Spanish Arch, an extension of the famous city walls, a remainder of Galway's former merchant trade with Spain, whose galleons often docked under its protection. There will be a visit to St. Nicholas's Church, founded in 1320, and dedicated, like many other European churches in seaports, to Saint Nicholas of Myra, the patron saint of seafarers. Local legend states that Christopher Columbus worshipped there when he visited the city in 1477.

Enjoy lunch in one of Galway's great restaurants. There is time after lunch to ramble around the city on your own. Happily, the city is conveniently compact making it easy to explore its eclectic mixture of locally owned specialty shops.

Dear FIBEP member,

We are excited to announce that we have secured a wonderful tour for the weekend after the 2022 FIBEP Congress to explore Ireland.

During the three-day tour, we will travel together to the other side of Ireland from Dublin to Galway with a luxury bus (about 3 hours). In Galway we will have a wonderful time enjoying Irish food and drinks together while exploring this harbor city. On Saturday, we will venture to the Cliffs of Moher to see one of the best attractions Ireland has to offer. We will arrive back in Dublin around 3pm on Sunday, which means you will have time to catch an evening flight out or stay in Dublin on Sunday evening.

There is limited space for this trip, so we advise to book quickly. As always with FIBEP, we encourage you to bring your partner with you on this trip. The price of the trip covers the cost of all expenses, including food (and some drinks), transfers, entry to the Cliffs of Moher and hotel from Sept 16 afternoon in Dublin until arrival back in Dublin on Sept 18 afternoon. More information about the itinerary is attached. To book this additional tour, please visit (www.FIBEP.info/Dublin).

Please let us know if you have any questions and we look forward to seeing you in Dublin (and Galway)!
